Subject: Notice of Change in Investment Options

The investment options in your retirement plan are monitored over time. The objective of this monitoring is to offer investment choices with strong performance relative to peers, low volatility and consistent style. Based upon this monitoring, the Plan will make changes to the available investments. This memo describes the changes.

Important Definitions Three definitions are important for the purposes of this memo:

"Investment Elections": An Investment Election is your instruction for the investment of future account contributions including elective deferrals, employer contributions and rollovers.

"Existing Balances": Existing Balances refer to the investment holdings in shares or units for your account as of a certain day.

"Automated Account Realignment": An Automated Account Realignment is your instruction for the automatic sale and purchase of investments occurring on an annual, semi-annual or quarterly schedule. The instruction causes your Existing Balance to be realigned to a preselected investment allocation.

Changes to Investment Program Models

The Plan uses Investment Program Models (IPM's) to provide Plan participants with an easy means to diversify investments. An IPM is a pre-diversified portfolio (mix) of individual mutual funds. The Plan Sponsor and/or an investment advisor selects and monitors the type and allocation percentages of the mutual funds used in the IPM. By selecting an IPM, Plan participants authorize periodic changes to the mutual funds and/or their allocation percentages in the IPM.

As of the Effective Date, the individual mutual funds within each IPM and the IPM's allocation percentages will be changed as shown below. The IPM will be realigned to reflect these changes.
